TEACHING STAFF

Due to our rapidly expanding student population, we are seeking to employ a vibrant Teacher of Technology, who is able to teach across all the disciplines. This is an exciting time to join us. The Priory Pembroke Academy opened in September 2017 and will be 450 strong in September 2021 up from a starting cohort of 161. We want high calibre staff who want the best for every child. We need a person who will live and breathe our motto – “Achieving Together” and is a true team player.

We would consider Part-time or Full-time for this position.

A Pembroke Teacher is an inspiring, innovative, high achieving professional who has a track record of high expectations, energy and enthusiasm in abundance.

We are part of The Priory Federation of Academies Trust and you will be encouraged and nurtured by the best professionals and be working collaboratively with other Academies by default. There are potential opportunities to work across different Academies within The Priory.

We encourage any potential applicants to visit us and see the potential, or if distance is an issue, check out our Facebook page and website. The excitement of growth is obvious!

For external applications, please complete our online application form under Vacancies at www.prioryacademies.co.uk Please note CVs are not accepted.

Internal applicants from colleagues within the Trust should complete an expression of interest via the Trust website here:
