AQA GCSE Spanish

PEMBROKE
A PRIORY ACADEMY

Why should I study GCSE Spanish?

GCSE Spanish is a Component of the English Baccalaureate. You should consider this GCSE if you have a passion for Spanish, language learning, global diversity of languages and cultures and want a language qualification on your CV.

What will I study?

The area for study is based on the young person in society and how to manage a contact with a Spanish-speaking person:

Identity and culture (relationships with family and friends, technology, free-time activities, customs and festivals in Spanish-speaking countries and communities; this includes Spain and South American countries)

Local, national, international and global areas of interest (home, town, neighbourhood and region, social issues, global issues, travel and tourism)

Current and future study and employment (studies, life at school and at college, post-16 education, jobs, career choices and ambitions)

How will I be assessed?

Unit 1 Listening: Listening to passages in Spanish and responding to questions in English and Spanish 25% EXAM

Unit 2 Speaking: Communicating and speaking for a variety of purposes 25% EXAM

Unit 3 Reading: Reading tasks to include understanding of tense changes, a wide range of vocabulary and longer text 25% EXAM

Unit 4 Writing: Communicating effectively in writing for a variety of purposes 25% EXAM

Which skills will I develop and use?

Listening to Spanish and understanding
Reading Spanish and understanding
Speaking clearly in Spanish
Writing to an understandable level in Spanish
Application of rules of Grammar – changing verbs into the past, present and future tenses

How will I be able to use this subject in my future career?

The study of GCSE Spanish could lead to A Level Spanish; University;

Work in travel and tourism; international business, law or journalism. GCSE Spanish will give you opportunities to communicate with other people in other countries. This can lead to higher salaries and opportunities to travel.