Reading Resources

If you are not already a member, join Lincolnshire Libraries online here:

<https://www.lincolnshire.gov.uk/libraries-archives/join-library>

and download free ebooks and audiobooks:

<https://lincolnshirelibraries.overdrive.com/library/teens> (you'll also need the free Overdrive app).

<https://www.worldbookdaysocial.com/podcasts/> bookish podcasts and author interviews.

<https://www.worldbookday.com/online-masterclasses/> author masterclasses.

<https://stories.audible.com/start-listen> free audiobooks (classics and more).

<https://literacytrust.org.uk/family-zone/9-12/book-hopes/> a free ebook written especially during lockdown with dozens of stories by top children's writers.

<https://tompalmer.co.uk/free-reads/> lots of great literacy resources for fans of sport, history or both with many extracts and free ebooks.

<https://www.lovereadings4kids.co.uk/> an amazing resource where, for just two seconds to sign up, you can access literally thousands of book extracts.

<https://www.empathylab.uk/empathy-read-aloud> short clips of authors reading you short stories to "boost" your empathy.

<https://authorfy.com/> a fabulous site full of arts and craft ideas, author interviews and extracts and literacy links.

<https://www.barringtonstoke.co.uk/> Barrington Stoke are a specialist in publishing dyslexia friendly and accessible titles but their books should appeal to all readers. Lots of clickable first chapters and other resources.
